PREFACE

This book is a compilation of every last note, picture, and correspondence that I have acquired since I started this quest for our "EDWARDS FAMILY HISTORY".

I had originally decided that I would put together just one book concerning our history. The only problem with that idea is that I really don't think that I would complete this search any time in the near future. There is just so much information that is out there for the taking, and so little time in a day to retrieve it.

What I decided to do is put together two books, (VOLUME I & II) concerning our history. The first volume will include all the information and pictures that I have concerning JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS and his descendants.

In the second volume that hopefully I will be able to compile in my life time will have information about our ancestors as far back as I can trace them.

After completion of these books I will be sending a copy to a few specific libraries around the country. one copy will be sent to BELKNAP IOWA LIBRARY. There will be one sent to CANON CITY COLORADO LIBRARY, and one to WOODBURN OREGON LIBRARY where my grandfather JAMES DALE EDWARDS settled and raised his family. There will also be one copy sent to the LIBRARY OF CONGRESS, and lastly to the LDS (LATTER DAY SAINTS) TEMPLE ARCHIVES in SALT LAKE CITY UTAH.

If in these pages of this book you as the reader find a misspelled name or town, or you might disagree with a fact or statement, I would like to be able to apologize for that and also give an explanation.

About 90% of all the information is given by our distant cousins from around the country, some by correspondence and also by taped conversations. This provided me with the information that I used in this book (VOLUME I).

Some times memories fade, or handwriting is not exactly eligible for me to get everything exactly right. So if there are any discrepancies in the following pages I would like to take the time to apologize for them.

Try to remember that I strived to compile the information that you are about to read as accurately as possible. According to the information that I have gathered from our distant cousins the following pages are very precise.

ENJOY !!!!!

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to thank the following people for the help and the information that they shared with me.

Without their help this book would not have been possible!

First of all I think that all of the credit for myself finding my grandfather JAMES DALE EDWARDS brothers and sisters families should be given to CHARLES SEYMOUR EDWARDS wife MARY CATHERINE CARNAHAN KEY EDWARDS SMITH. Before her death on June 11, 1992 she submitted a family group sheet to the LDS LATTER DAY SAINTS. This is the sole reason I have gotten as far as I have.

To the daughter of CHARLES S. EDWARDS, {POLLY} PAULINE EDWARDS SPRING and her husband JOHN SPRING for opening up their arms wide when I visited them in HAYWARD CALIFORNIA in DECEMBER OF 1992. This was my first meeting with any of the other families and to say the least I was pretty nervous! From the first meeting in their drive way to when I had to go back home they were always very kind and friendly, and lastly very helpful to me.

To the family of CLAUDE COLLAWAY EDWARDS for surprising me and my family with a beautiful dinner / family reunion at CLAUDE C. EDWARDS GRANDSON, TED EDWARDS JR.'S home in NAPA VALLEY CALIFORNIA on our trip in MAY 1993.

Everyone there was so very friendly to myself and my family. THANK YOU FOR THAT!

Lastly to my very dear new friend, W. LLOYD SMITH who is the son in law to EDNA BLANCHE EDWARDS MUNHOLLON. On my trip to CANON CITY COLORADO in APRIL 23-25, 1993 he showed me such a very good time. He shared his memories with me and all of the pictures he and his wife AUDREY MUNHOLLON SMITH collected over the years of being married to one another. We both helped each other through our personal losses with LLOYD'S wife AUDREY and my father JOHNNY L. EDWARDS passing away very recently before our visit with one another. THANK YOU MY FRIEND!

EARTHY

*In heaven will there be
No homey task to plan,
No beaten path on which to see
My loved ones coming home to me?*

*Will I be contented there
To sit with folded hands—
No fires to light, no sorrows share,
Singing always on the golden stair?*

*No, surely I will seek
A plot in Beulah land
And build a house with chimneys deep,
With beds to smooth, and floors to sweep.*

*And on God's thoroughfare
Trees, row on row, will stand,
The ones with robins in their hair,
The singing pine and white oaks fair.*

*In heaven, if there be
No thing of earthy brand,
Lord, grant a task, set me not free—
A guardian angel make of me.*

JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS

James Philando Edwards was born on DECEMBER 15, 1858, in APPANOOSE COUNTY IOWA. He was born to WILLIAM S. EDWARDS and MARY WILLET EDWARDS.

In 1860 the family was living in UNION TWP, APPANOOSE COUNTY IOWA. At this time JAMES P. EDWARDS was only one year old and his father WILLIAM S. EDWARDS was a teacher for the county of APPANOOSE in IOWA.

According to the 1870 FEDERAL CENSUS the EDWARDS FAMILY was living in FOX RIVER TOWNSHIP IOWA, near BLOOMFIELD IOWA. WILLIAM S. EDWARDS was a farmer at this time.

By the 1880 FEDERAL CENSUS JAMES P. EDWARDS was still living on his fathers land and working as a farmer. JAMES P. was 21 years old at this time. The family was still living in FOX RIVER TOWNSHIP.

On DECEMBER 22, 1888 JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS married FLORA BELLE BREEDING in or near DRAKESVILLE, SOAP CREEK TOWNSHIP IOWA. From this marriage there were ten children born.

1. VIRGIL OWEN EDWARDS
2. EDNA BLANCHE EDWARDS
3. ELMA MAE EDWARDS
4. JOHN HARLAN EDWARDS
5. MARY MARIANN EDWARDS
6. WILLIAM JENNINGS BRIAN EDWARDS
7. CHARLES SEYMOUR EDWARDS
8. JAMES DALE EDWARDS
9. CLAUDE CALLOWAY EDWARDS
10. BEULAH RAE EDWARDS

The 1900 FEDERAL CENSUS has JAMES P. living in SOAP CREEK TOWNSHIP IOWA. At this time in his life he and his wife FLORA BELLE have had seven (7) children born to them, namely:

1. VIRGIL OWEN EDWARDS
2. EDNA BLANCHE EDWARDS
3. ELMA MAE EDWARDS
4. JOHN HARLAN EDWARDS
5. MARY MARIANN EDWARDS
6. BRYAN EDWARDS
7. CHARLES SEYMOUR EDWARDS

The 1900 CENSUS states that JAMES P. owned his own land, and owned the land without mortgage. The land that they lived on was a farm.

From the early to middle 1900's (1918-1919 +/-) JAMES P. and his wife FLORA BELLE were living in CHETOPA KANSAS. I believe mainly for the reason that their eldest daughter EDNA BLANCHE EDWARDS MUNHOLLON and her family were living there in CHETOPA. During this time in their lives I don't know how they made ends meet because JAMES P. was almost completely blind.

On NOVEMBER 20, 1919 FLORA BELLE BREEDING EDWARDS passed away and left JAMES P. EDWARDS to take care of their youngest child, BEULAH RAE EDWARDS. At this time in little BEULAH's life one can imagine the amount of work she had to do to take care of everything that her mother use to take care of.

NOTE

After the death of FLORA BELLE in 1919, every day JAMES P. would walk over a mile to go to the grave side of his wife FLORA BELLE BREEDING EDWARDS.

Somewhere between 1922-1923 JAMES P. EDWARDS and little BEULAH left KANSAS for CANON CITY COLORADO where JAMES P.'S two sons, JOHN HARLAN and JAMES DALE EDWARDS were trying to make ends meet during the pre-depression era.

JAMES P. EDWARDS was for sure in CANON CITY COLORADO on DECEMBER 22, 1922 because he signed as a witness on the marriage certificate for his son JAMES DALE EDWARDS marriage to SALLIE BARNEYCASTLE.

NOTE

The CANON CITY COLORADO DIRECTORY for 1923 lists JAMES P. as retired and living at 1032 RIVER RD.

I believe that between 1923 and 1929 JAMES P. EDWARDS was floating from one of his children's home to another. That is only an educated guess of course. This would make sense because of the stories that I have heard from different family members concerning JAMES P. visiting his children from time to time. Some of these trips took JAMES P. to OKLAHOMA, UTAH, COLORADO, and CALIFORNIA.

Not until 1929 can I find JAMES P. EDWARDS back in CANON CITY COLORADO where he was admitted to the COUNTY HOSPITAL, or what the locals called the "POOR FARM".

NOTE

The 1931-1932 CANON CITY LOCAL DIRECTORY lists JAMES P. as a resident of the COUNTY HOSPITAL.

On DECEMBER 25, 1938 JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS passed away during CHRISTMAS dinner at the COUNTY HOSPITAL. He was 80 years old.

JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS death certificate shows that he passed away at 1130am on DECEMBER 25, 1938 from a coronary. Contributory cause was HYPERTENSION. On the death certificate the informants name was CLAUDE C. EDWARDS, his youngest son which lived in COLORADO SPRINGS COLORADO at the time.

The death certificate states that he was born in ATTUMWA, WAPELLO COUNTY IOWA, but I could not find him or his father mentioned in the WAPELLO COUNTY CENSUS for 1860. The death certificate also states that he was a resident of CANON CITY COLORADO for 12 years. This puts JAMES P. EDWARDS living in CANON CITY as early as 1926, if this is true.

JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS body was shipped by train to LA MIRADA CAL. and buried in the OLIVE LAWN MEMORIAL CEMETERY. GRAVE 1, LOT 38, SECTION D.

NOTE

The person who handled the payment for the shipping of the body and burial was his youngest daughter BEULAH RAE EDWARDS.

In six generations JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS has 182 descendants. If you count spouses, too, then there are 286 descendants.

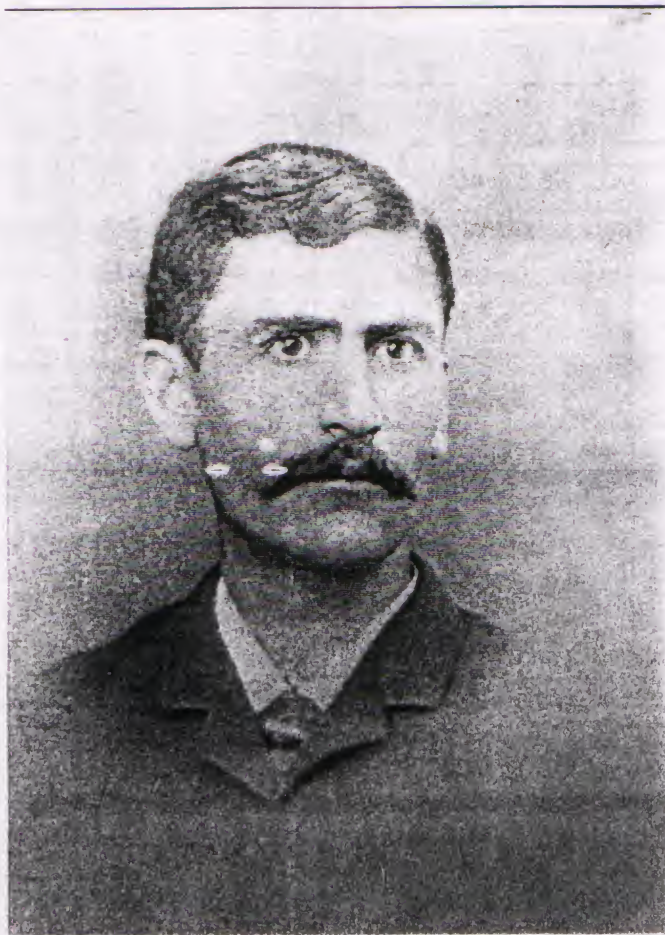

THE COUNTY HOSPITAL/POOR FARM CANON CITY COLORADO

The FREMONT COUNTY POOR FARM and HOSPITAL, located on the 1300 block of EAST MAIN ST., CANON CITY COLORADO began operation in 1886. The original building was a small farm house which later was expanded to accommodate 60 patients. It operated as the county hospital until 1967 when the county sold the buildings and surrounding land to private investors. It was then opened again and operated as a private nursing and convalescent home until it again closed in 1973.

All of the records were kept in ledger form, with entries being made for each resident or upon admission and upon dismissal.

This hospital is where JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS stayed from 1929-1938.

I visited the old hospital and enjoyed very much walking in my GREAT GRANDFATHER, JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS foot steps.

Death Claims Aged Man at Christmas Feast at Hospital

Death was a guest at the turkey-laden table at the county farm Christmas noon, and at the height of the gay holiday meal J. P. Edwards, 80-year-old blind former hard-rock miner, collapsed of a heart attack and died within a few moments.

Mr. Edwards had eaten half of his dinner when he suddenly straightened up as though stricken with a sharp pain. A moment later he slumped in his chair and was dead by the time the other diners reached him.

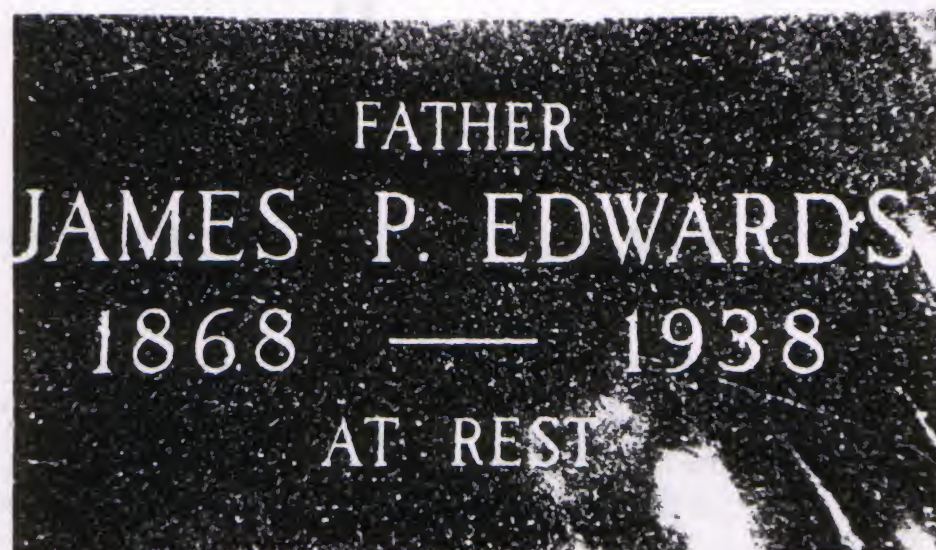

Mr. Edwards was apparently in good health. He had not complained of feeling ill and had been at breakfast as usual Sunday morning.

The sudden death of Mr. Edwards threw a pall over the other residents of the county farm and the majority did not complete their dinner. The usual Christmas afternoon social time was cancelled.

He had been a resident of the farm since a powder blast at a county mine years ago brought total blindness. He had been a resident of the county about a year prior to the explosion.

Mr. Edwards was born in Atunwa, Iowa, on December 15, 1858. He celebrated his 80th birthday only 12 days ago.

He is survived by a son, Claude, of Colorado Springs, and a daughter, Beulah, of Norwalk, Calif. His body will be forwarded by the Wilson mortuary to Whittier, Calif., a former home, for burial.

VIRGIL OWEN EDWARDS

VIRGIL OWEN EDWARDS was born on JUNE 1, 1890 in or near SOAP CREEK TOWNSHIP, DAVIS COUNTY IOWA.

VIRGIL OWEN EDWARDS is shown on the 1900 FEDERAL CENSUS for SOAP CREEK TOWNSHIP. At this time in his life he was nine (9) years old and going to school.

VIRGIL OWEN married HARRIET ETTA _____. He had two sons for sure.

1. BERT EDWARDS
2. CURT EDWARDS

There is also a possibility that he also had a older boy by the name of LEON EDWARDS, and also possibly a daughter.

After marrying his wife HARRIET ETTA they ended up living in a town in the LOS ANGELES CALIFORNIA MID-CITY area called HYNES CALIFORNIA. This town no longer exists and is now where PARAMOUNT CALIFORNIA is today.

While they were living in HYNES CALIFORNIA their son BERT was killed by a car while playing with his brother CURT and some local boys near their home.

VIRGIL OWEN EDWARDS passed away on JUNE 14, 1961. 16 days past his 81st birthday. At the time of his death he was living at 2031 N. MERCED, EL MONTE CALIFORNIA. His wife HARRIET ETTA passed away on APRIL 18, 1978 while living in LONG BEACH CALIFORNIA.

VIRGIL and his wife are buried side by side in the same cemetery as his father JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS. OLIVE LAWN MEMORIAL PARK, LA MIRADA CALIFORNIA. GRAVE 5 & 6, SECTION 1317, SECTION C.

There are no records available that I can find that states anything about their children. I have no idea actually how many children there were or whether or not there are any descendants to this family.

All that I have to show as far as information are the photos of VIRGIL OWEN EDWARDS and his family.

AUTO ACCIDENT KILLS 10 YEAR OLD HYNES BOY

Bert E. Edwards, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil O. Edwards of 326 Indiana street Hynes, died on arrival at Hynes hospital after being hit by a car operated by Herbert Wynja, dairyman of 352 Downey avenue Tuesday evening. Young Edwards with his brother, Curt and other neighborhood boys had been playing hide and seek. Witnesses said he ran directly in front of Wynja's car. An inquest, held Wednesday afternoon at the Hunter and eBrndorfer mortuary, Long Beach, exonerated Wynja of negligence.

The accident occurred on Jackson street, about midway between Indiana and Virginia streets, according to Deputies W. M. Sett and W. J. Robbe of Norwalk sheriff's station, investigating officers.

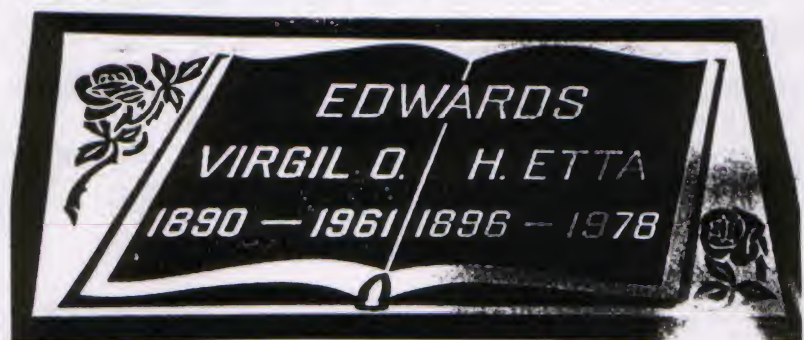

After the accident, Wynja, accompanied by the boy's father, took young Edwards to the Hynes hospital. Dr. H. W. Pfaff of surgery staff, said he died on arrival there. Cause of death given as a basal skull fracture. Time of the accident was placed at about 7:15 p.m. Witnesses at the inquest testified that lights on Wynja's car were burning.

Father and Son Hurt in Falls From Horses

OGDEN, June 25.—J. H. Edwards, Sr., 32, and his son, J. H. Edwards, Jr., 8, were injured this afternoon on Washington avenue and Twenty-second street when both fell from horses which they were riding en route to a blacksmith shop.

Riding side by side, the father noticed that the horse on which the boy was riding was becoming frightened and reached out to grasp the boy. As he did this the horse jumped aside and both father and son were thrown to the pavement.

One of the horses left the imprint of a shoe on the boy's stomach, but the extent of the internal injuries are not known. The father's head and nose were cut and the boy suffered bruises and cuts on the head. The boy was taken to the Dee hospital by Dr. N. H. Savage for observation.

INJURY LEADS TO BOY'S DEATH

John Harlan Edwards, Jr., 8-year-old son of John Harlan and Opal Brauer Edwards, 1085 Canyon road, who was thrown from a horse Saturday afternoon, died in the Dee hospital Sunday afternoon. The horse stepped on the boy's lower abdomen, causing internal injuries.

The boy was born on October 25, 1918, in Canon City, Colo., and is survived by his parents; a sister, Doris Lucile; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bauer of Pueblo, Colo., and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. James P. Edwards, Canon City. The Edwards family has lived in Ogden only four months. The body is at the Malan Funeral home.

The boy and his father were riding south on two horses along Washington avenue near Twenty-second street when the accident occurred. The boy's horse became frightened and the father reached over to assist him. The animal ridden by the father jumped aside and both father and son were thrown to the pavement.

LOUISE & BRIAN EDWARDS

April 23 - 1958

Dear Audrey, Pauline & Wayne,

Not having had any word as yet in regard to your Mother since receiving your message I will write again.

I was at Harlan's yesterday and got your card and telegram and was surprised at the wording of them as they were both read over the telephone to me and I must not of got the contents clear as I was not aware of the fact that you had requested a return answer by wire in regard to any of us boys being able to come.

Truly I am unable to come myself (I only mean to speak for myself) and am so very sorry conditions are as they stand but conditions over which I don't seem to have much if any control over leaves me no choice.

I had planned on working my way east when R.R. work ~~gave~~ ^{came} up and had hoped I could find a job close enough so I could see your mother or all of you often but fate has always dealt me a very poor hand.

I do hope your mother is still with you and is getting easy, of course we all hate to think of losing her, but if she is to live a life of suffering and pain it is of course best that she go.

We all feel and know that when she does go her going will ^{be} peaceful and happy and the thought of leaving her children prepared as fine men and women to face this cruel old world will be a source of consolation that no one dare deny her.

No one can doubt but what she has come near completing her mission here on earth and I do believe that she will be greeted over there with the words, "Well done thy good and faithful servant."

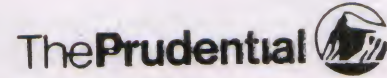

I do hope Mary Beulah or Claude at least one of them have been fortunate enough to come to you as I just cannot get it off my mind about you kids being all alone in as far as your relatives are concerned.

My heart goes out to your poor Old Grand Father who after all should be entitled to one fond last farewell to one of his family. It is hard indeed

To believe at times that there is a God, but I know there must be if but we only understood his workings.

Well Sunday I will close still hoping your Mother is still with you and will win in

Walking 56 Blocks Daily Is His Hot Weather Task

By Frank Rhoades

If you think you're suffering from the heat—just look at your postman!

Take Charles Seymour Edwards, for example. He's walking an average of 56 blocks a day, during a 40-hour week; he's making more stops than ever before; and never in history has that big leather mail pouch been too much heavier.

And the tough part of it is, Charley can't make himself as comfortable as you. He has to wear his uniform cap all the time and must always wear his necktie. That, in the words of Acting Post Master Ed Vendell, is because "he is a salesman for the postal department, and must always look neat."

If a "customer" along Charley Edwards' route offers him a glass of ice water, it's all right for him to accept it. But the postman will never ask for it, he says. The makers of postal regulations frown upon the idea of the carriers asking route residents for anything, nor changed his diet. He just plods along—dreaming . . . of the day when it's time to put on his long underwear again. He wears it every winter, and he advocates it for everyone who works outside.

of actual streets, between the and Adams. He's pretty sure the people who live on Adams says they're all friendly. A drink of water is not a letter carrier can really the heat is "take advantage every patch of shade."

There's not too much of but, to make matters worse, are four or five dogs on Charley's route that he "wouldn't back on." They keep him alert all the while—because man Edwards knows all about the dog situation here.

Before the city's restrictions dogs went into effect recently was bad, Vendell said. During a six-month period several carriers would be bitten. In fact, one carrier has been bitten three times in one day!

"I have observed," said the acting postmaster, "that all letter carriers develop a phobia in connection with dogs. They are constantly on guard against any and that's the fault of little dogs. Because, naturally, the postman expects to be attacked by a dog, and that's not what happens. When he gets bitten, it's done by a little dog that has the reputation of being friendly with all neighborhood children."

Dog Owners Cooperate

Not at all incidentally, a man is not required to take his mail to a place where he is attacked by a dog. All he has to do is report it to Vendell. The postmaster, in turn, notifies the dog owner, and, here in Ogden, it seems the owner always keeps his dog on sight—if he doesn't get rid of it entirely. Vendell frequently expresses appreciation for such cooperation.

The reason letter carriers are making more steps than ever before is, of course, more people are living along the routes than ever before.

But that's not necessarily the reason the mail pouches are heavier. Vendell believes it's because more magazines are being mailed into Ogden than ever before. That, due largely, he says, to the appearance of new publications.

"Every day," he declared, "we're handling magazines that we never heard of before."

Too, mail deliveries from the veterans administration have increased the weight of the bag, the postmaster said.

Getting back to the heat, Charley Edwards does nothing to combat it, except dress a little lighter. He's never taken salt tablets.

BEULAH RAE EDWARDS

BEULAH RAE EDWARDS was born on APRIL 17, 1907 in CANON CITY COLORADO.

Early in her life she married J.H. DICKERSON who was believed to be a chiropractor. There are no children to my knowledge born from this union.

BEULAH married JAMES W. BELL. From this marriage there was one child born.

1. JAMES RICHARD BELL B- 2/7/44

BEULAH had a very hard childhood. In 1919 BEULAH'S mother, FLORA BELLE BREEDING EDWARDS passed away leaving an adults responsibilities with a little girl. At this time in her life little BEULAH was only 12 years old.

JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS and BEULAH stayed in PARSONS KANSAS until at least 1922. JAMES P. EDWARDS was in CANON CITY COLORADO for his son JAMES DALE EDWARDS wedding on DECEMBER 22, 1922. More than likely BEULAH was there with him.

NOTE

BEULAH was a telephone operator in CANON CITY COLORADO in 1923.

Some where between 1923-1929 BEULAH moved away with her husband J.H. DICKERSON and they were living at 508 S. 6TH KIRKSVILLE MO.

BEULAH was the point of contact while JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS was living in the COUNTY HOSPITAL/POOR FARM in CANON CITY COLORADO.

Upon JAMES P. EDWARDS death all of the charges to take care of the body and have it shipped to LA MIRADA CALIFORNIA was taken care of by BEULAH who at the time of DECEMBER 25, 1938 lived in NORWALK CALIFORNIA.

BEULAH worked at the state hospital in or near NORWALK CALIFORNIA. She also spent some time working for the public school system in the lunch rooms while her son JIMMY BELL was in school.

On JUNE 29, 1954 BEULAH'S only son, JIMMY RICHARD BELL passed away from a very tragic accident.

It had been said by more than person that when little JIMMY passed away BEULAH became very withdrawn.

BEULAH enjoyed to work in her garden as a hobby.

On APRIL 12, 1984 BEULAH RAE EDWARDS passed away.

The person who handled the expenses and burial of BEULAH RAE EDWARDS BELL was her niece AUDREY BESSIE MUNHOLLON SMITH who was the daughter of EDNA BLANCHE EDWARDS MUNHOLLON, the oldest daughter of JAMES PHILANDO EDWARDS.

BEULAH is buried in SANTA FE SPRINGS CALIFORNIA in the LITTLE LAKE CEMETERY.

Cowboy Belt Strangles 10 Year-Old Boy In Game

In six months, 10-year-old James Richard Bell would have been able to throw away the crutches he had worn for the past three years because of a flat left hip bone.

But today the happy, smiling youngster is dead.

His mother, Mrs. Beulah Bell, lying from a cowboy belt looped around his neck in the closet of his bedroom at 14330 Ibex Ave. Tuesday at 10:30 a.m., still dressed in his pajamas because his mother had told him to sleep as late as he wished the first week of vacation.

His mother, Mrs. Beulah Bell, was watering the back lawn at 10:30 a.m. when she accidentally squirted water on her dress. Jimmy, who was looking out the bedroom window, began laughing and "joking with her like he always did" according to Dwight Dorman, their next door neighbor.

She went into the house to change clothes and called for her only son. When he didn't answer, she said, "If you're hiding from me, Jimmy, I don't have time to hunt for you!" Hearing two or three thumps from his room, she entered, and then opened the closet expecting to find him lurking among his clothes, hiding from her in one of their customary games.

He had stepped on top of his amplifier to the steel guitar that he hoped would one day lead him to fame, and his crippled left leg, possibly gave way. Captain Norman Hamilton of the Los Angeles County Police Department surmised. The captain guessed that he fell forward, caught his neck in the loop, and it immediately cut off his wind. "Just one chance in a thousand that it would have caught him," he said.

Mrs. Bell released the boy from the belt and laid him on the bed. Dorman heard her screaming, and after phoning police, he gave the boy artificial respiration because his body was still warm and there was a slight pulse.

A fire department inhalator, however, failed to fully revive the boy and he died in an ambulance going to Bellflower Emergency Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. in the Norwalk Funeral Home with Reverend Bryan J. Shelton officiating. Burial will be in Little Lake cemetery.

Deformed Boy, 10, Is Found Hanged

NORWALK—(INS)—James Richard Bell, 10, was found hanged yesterday in the closet of his home, with the deformed feet that kept him from playing with other children lashed together.

Police said a leather strap was used for the noose. The lad was pronounced dead on arrival at Bellflower Emergency Hospital. JUNE 30, 1954
